LEGISLATION WOULD FORCE TOWNS
TO START WITH THIS MINIMUM FOR TEACHERS

The recent Mattapoisett Town Meeting opened some questions into the Regional School budget and dealing with the power of the taxpayers through their representatives on the Regional School Committee. In order to clear up some of these questions and to exchange views, the School Committee members from Mattapoisett, Marshall Ross, Marshall Sawyer, Jr. and Dr. Clayton King, invited interested townspeople to meet with them at the high school last Thursday night, April 11th. The three members were met by 13 residents of Mattapoisett.

At the meeting's start, Mr. Sawyer answered a question about a rumor that 8-year old Homemakers' Department equipment was to be replaced as over-age. He said that the rumor had no basis in fact.

In answer to an expressed feeling of discontent with school administration, Mr. Sawyer said that Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Joseph Kunces, is "the hardest working man I know". He said that the superintendent works a 15-hour day. This year, in teacher bargaining sessions, he had 33 meetings of 3-hour duration or over just to negotiate salaries, Mr. Sawyer stated. He said that the superintendent must be present at these meetings because he alone has the facts.

It was suggested from the group that a work load of this kind might require an assistant. Mr. Sawyer said that other districts of similar size do have assistant superintendents.

An inquiry from the group about the availability of the superintendent to the student council was made. It was asked if students had no right to see the superintendent without the permission of the principal. The committee members expressed agreement that a student council group should have access to Dr. Kunces.

It was pointed out from the group that the school budget contained a "pad" for contingencies. Mr. Jarvis Stratton asked if the school committee audited the books. He asked if the contingency fund was unused if it could be returned to the Town. Mr. Sawyer answered that it could. Mr. Stratton asked if anything had ever been left and maintainance, $10,000 for bus transportation increase and $9,000 for new typewriters and panel for the building.

The buses were described as old looking and run down by the group. The committee replied that requirements are for buses of not more than 6 years old. The bus contractor had reported that he was unable to obtain new equipment from the manufacturer at this time and the School Committee had checked and found this to be true.

On the matter of teachers' salaries, the Old Rochester minimum is $5,400. The State minimum is $5,000. The minimum rate (by State law) effective September 1, 1968, is $5,750 and the Old Rochester minimum $6,100.

Question: "Why push the Old Rochester minimum up?"

Answer: The State law requires that the School Committee must negotiate with teachers on all matters of pay and working conditions and that the teachers proposed the higher rate. The Committee stated that higher rates are paid to attract good teachers. Teachers receive $200 for one year's experience and then a $300 per year increase for satisfactory work. partment oversee the teachers and make the evaluation of satisfactory.

Question: "Why negotiate if increases are automatic?"

Answer: Teachers assume the right to negotiate."

According to the Committee the budget had to contain an estimated amount to take care of the increase in teachers' salaries, before negotiations had established any amount, because the teachers did not present their proposal before the budget deadline, although there was time for them to do so. In setting rates of pay, Mr. Sawyer said that the Committee waits to see what other towns are settling for, then try to strike a medium.

Question: "What is the alternative to negotiation?"

Answer: "The State law requires negotiation whenever the teachers request it."

Question: "Is there no halt to this? Is there no binding contract as in industry?"

Answer: "No, it is different. The school committee could negotiate and get a contract signed today and tomorrow the teachers can come in with a new proposal."

Question: "You could say no?"

Answer: "Yes."

The committee then explained that the school committee is bound by the contract while the teachers are not.

Mr. Robert Moynihan, principal of the Mattapoisett elementary schools, stated that teachers on the elementary level are waiting for the high school pay to be set. He said that the feeling is that they should not be paid anything less.

It was observed that the Old Rochester salary scale sets the pattern for all the towns. Mr. Marshall Ross then said that, at this time, Rep. Rogers has a bill in the Massachusetts Legislature to force the minimum teachers' salary to $8,300. He said that local people might want to write their representative regarding that bill.

Questioned, Mr. Sawyer said that the school committee had signed a contract with the Narragansett league, thereby leaving the Capeway league. He explained that this was done because the coaches told the committee that the odds were stacked against them because of the emphasis on sports in the member schools of the Capeway league. He said that the Old Rochester football squad is unable to field two full teams so that one side of the line is forced to scrimmage against the other in practice. The coaches told the committee that older boys are not coming out for sports because of the odds. The athletic head requested the change of league in the strongest terms. The committee had accepted the change by signing with the Narragansett league but did not sign for the life of the league as was first required.

The committee was asked that they answer questions at the Town Meeting rather than leave the explanations to Dr. Kunces. They were also requested to prepare a more complete report to be in the hands of the taxpayers at that time. The committee members agreed that this would be helpful.

On the question of setting curriculum, the committee was asked how much they were involved in its preparation. Mr. Sawyer answered that the curriculum is discussed with the committee but basically is left to the administration.

Mr. Stratton expressed his opinion that the school is preoccupied with the college bound student and that the average student often found himself out of his depth. The group suggested that there is no good program for the student who is not college material. Mr. Ross then asked, "Who can tell who is college material?" He went on to say that many students are late bloomers and that, if they were judged prematurely, they would not have their chance.

The work load of the students was brought into the discussion. One of the group said that he had a boy in an advanced group. He said because he tried to do the work given him, the time required and the pressure left the boy no time for a normal boy's life. This boy, he explained, has a 7-hour school day and then came home with 4 hours of homework.

As the meeting concluded, the group expressed thanks to the school committee for a most valuable session that imparted much worthwhile information. Regret was expressed that so few had taken advantage of this meeting. There was also general agreement that the main contention was not between the taxpayer and the school committee but rather between the taxpayer and the Massachusetts legislature. D.C.J.

The worthy lecturer, Mary Beth Breton, conducted the program shared by the visiting Granges. For Mattapoissett she held a vegetable quiz for agriculture and an egg rolling game with the masters and lecturers taking part. Mark Harris made the highest score for the masters and Marjorie Gosilyn, lecturer of Watuppa, for the lecturers. Both received chocolate Easter eggs from the lecturer.

A fine square dance exhibition was demonstrated by members of the Fairhaven Junior Grange, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Monette of Fairhaven Grange.

Lecturer Breton announced the next meeting on April 26th will be Hobby Night and she urged all to bring and tell about their hobbies.

Honored guests spoke briefly. State Committee member, Charles Fuller, remarked on the wonderful group of boys and girls in the Junior Grange, visiting and sharing in their work and talents. OUR BRIGHT SYMBOL

Editorial

A nighttime stroller in Mattapoisett village is treated to a new spectacle, the Flag flying from the "Wanderer's" mast at Shipyard Park. "Old Glory" stands in magnificent clarity against the inky black of the ocean sky. It is a beautiful focal point. I'm a "square". I get a thrill out of that banner against any sky. At night, flying from that tall white mast, we have something very special. Illuminating that flag was an inspired idea. It's worth keeping. I hope that light never goes out.

In announcing the appointments Mr. Fitzgerald said, "The public has given generous and growing support over the years to the annual Cancer Crusade. Increased support means increased research, education and service and a speedier realization of the goal of all people -- the control of cancer."

The Cancer Crusade is conducted annually throughout the nation in April, officially designated by Congress as Cancer Control Month. The campaign will be highlighted on the evening of April 23rd, when more than 95,000 volunteers across Massachusetts will canvass their neighborhoods, providing life-saving information on cancer's warning signals and asking for support of the fight against cancer.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I was very upset and disillusioned by the meeting held at the high school last Thursday evening between our three members of the school committee and a handful of townspeople. It obviously served no constructive purpose -- it seemed to be an evening of unsubstantiated accusations, misquotes and inaccuracies.

I shall not take this space to go into the serious points which I feel were unjustly and unfairly discussed. I would like to take this opportunity to humbly suggest to those members of the school committee from Mattapoisett, that if they are sincere in bringing about unity and better conditions to our Regional School, that they have in attendance at the next meeting not only the entire committee, but also representatives of the school administration and the athletic department. Only then can the people of the three towns receive a fair and accurate picture of what is going on at Old Rochester.

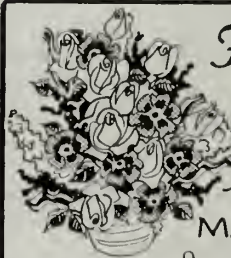

Mrs. John A. Lees

HAPPY HOT CEREAL

Cheer up the morning with a bowl of hot cereal! Serve it with a little light corn syrup poured right from the bottle along with the cream or milk or with butter or margarine melting into the warm cereal. A popular trick of many cereal fans is to pour on dark corn syrup to give a nice and nutty flavor. Try hot cereal as a nutritious after-school snack or afternoon pick-up.

Miss Wareham Ball

MISS WAREHAM BALL

The evening of April 20th, as planned by the Wareham Chamber of Commerce, will be "a night to remember". That is the night that the Miss Wareham Scholarship Pageant introduces its contestants at a Formal Ball to be held at White Cliffs in Plymouth.

The Formal Ball is a new event, initiated by the Chamber of Commerce this year as a "kick-off" affair to enrich the Miss Wareham Scholarship Fund which is so important to contestants.

Since the Miss Wareham Pageant inception, several hundreds of dollars have been awarded to the talented and career-minded young ladies. These monies have enabled them to further their educations in chosen fields.

The Miss America Pageant, which this program is a sister to, provides one-quarter million dollars in scholarships to those young ladies representing their states. And of course, the State Pageant winners receive their share of awards while competing for the honor of becoming a State representative. Thus, while the Miss
